

UN CSD - Major Group for Children and Youth

INDICATORS AND BENCHMARKS FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH WITHIN A POTENTIAL SDG FRAMEWORK

The population has passed the 7 billion mark and is swiftly rising with a youth bulge in many development countries. The High Level Panel of eminent persons on post-2015 report reflects the importance of disaggregation of data and cross cutting issues of youth. Within the SDG framework, however, it remains unclear which indicators would be most useful for the mainstreaming of children and youth. Going beyond just looking at youth unemployment this session will present different methodologies for monitoring and evaluating development for children and youth globally within the SDGs.
