

Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on Sustainable Development Financing

Experts' bios

African Group:

Ahmed Jehani (Libya)

Mr. Ahmed Jehani is the Chairman and Founder of the Libyan Development Policy Centre, a think tank associated with international organizations including the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund (IMF). He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Libyan Investment Authority, a Managing Director of the “Economic Consulting Bureau”, a Visiting Scholar of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and a Co-Founder and Vice Chairman of the Foundation for Rehabilitation of victims from the recent conflict in Libya. Prior to that, Mr. Jehani served as a Minister of Rehabilitation and Reconstruction, and as a Chairman of the Stabilization Teams for the Free Libya. For over thirty years, Mr. Jehani worked at the World Bank in a variety of capacities, including Senior Advisor to the Board of Directors, Country Director in the Caucasus Region, negotiator and policy advisor. Mr. Jehani studied at Harvard Law School, at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and at the University of Libya where he qualified for degrees in Law, Finance and Economics.