

Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on Sustainable Development Financing

Experts' bios

Western European and Others Group:

Nathan Dal Bon (Australia)

Mr. Nathan Dal Bon is Head of the Economic Advisory Group at the Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID). Mr. Dal Bon has over eighteen years' experience in economic policy advising and has contributed to a range of policy issues across the Asia-Pacific region. As a senior economic advisor to the Australian Government, he has driven both domestic and international reforms to achieve sustainable economic development. In his current position, Mr. Dal Bon is leading work to improve the effectiveness of Australia's aid program, including a range of financing related issues that focus on ensuring that Australia's aid initiatives are appropriately structured and targeted and leverage broader outcomes with partner governments. Prior to this position, Mr. Dal Bon worked as a senior economic advisor for the Australian Treasury and Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet. He also worked as a senior economic adviser at Parliament House and spent three years seconded to the Indonesian Ministry of Finance working on policy reforms. Mr. Dal Bon has a Bachelor of Economic (Hons) degree from the University of Newcastle.