

CSD-15 Partnerships Fair Speaker Biography

Andre Bourassa

Andre Bourassa started his career in 1973 as a Trade Commissioner in the Canadian Foreign Service. From 1984 on, he has worked in international relations in the minerals metals sector for Natural Resources Canada. This period includes a three year term as Vice-President, Metal Stewardship, at the International Council on Metals and the Environment (ICME). Since 2002, he has acted as the Secretariat first for the Global Dialogue on Mining/Metals and then for the Intergovernmental Forum on Mining, Minerals, Metals and Sustainable Development.

He is a professional Engineer and has a Master degree in Economics