GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE CBFP

- Launched in Johannesburg in 2002 during the World Summit on Sustainable Development
- Objectives:
  - Put into effect the implementation plan adopted at the WSSD for promoting the development, sustainable management and conservation of forest ecosystems in Central Africa,
  - Support the implementation of the Yaoundé Declaration, adopted by the Heads of State of the Central African countries in March 1999

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE CBFP

- CBFP – a « type II » partnership
- Based on a voluntary agreement between members
  - No legally binding business arrangement among “partners”
  - “Partners” with different expertise for biodiversity, forest conservation and sustainable forest management
  - Coordination of the process by a “facilitator”

MAIN PREOCCUPATIONS OF THE CBFP

- Support the Central African Forests Commission (COMIFAC) in the implementation of the regional forest strategy (Convergence Plan), which is the operational translation of the 1999 Yaounde Declaration
- Share information to improve coordination of member activities

FONCTIONING OF THE CBFP

Governance of the CBFP:

- Steering through ‘facilitation’ provided by one of the members for two years: USA (2003-2005), France (2005-2007), Germany (2008-2009)

Objective of the Facilitation

- Organize a dialogue and collaboration between the different partners,
- Set up a work programme based on the guidelines provided in the COMIFAC Convergence Plan
- Represent and promote the CBFP

COOPERATION FRAMEWORK

- Adopted in February 2005 in order to favor transparency and coordination between the members and to develop synergies between their present and future projects & programmes
- CBFP Cooperation framework insists on:
  - Simultaneous promotion of economic development, poverty reduction and conservation of biodiversity;
  - Incorporation of the activities of the Partners into the national and regional programmes of COMIFAC member states;
  - Institutional support to COMIFAC and its subregional partner institutions;
  - Greater involvement of civil society and the private sector;
  - Better transparency in the management of the sector through national and regional consultation processes.

ORGANIZATIONAL SETUP OF THE CBFP

Concertation Structures

- Facilitation
- CBFP Plenary sessions
- Consultative Regional Committee
- Thematic Working Groups

Communication Instruments

- Web Site : www.cbfp.org
- Information News Bulletins of the COMIFAC
- Electronic « Newsletter »
- Common Publications
(p.ex. State of the Congo Basin forests 2006)

EVALUATION OF THE PARTNERSHIP

- Carried out in 2007, results presented in November
- Jointly organized and financed by France and Germany
- Independantly executed by a team of consultants

- 76 Questionnaires
- 67 Interviews
- 3 regional reflection groups

The partnership's impact as perceived by its members
