

Russian Federation

The Russian Federation said implementation of the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation could not be reduced to reforming UNEP and must include exploring the potential of other existing mechanisms, including the 2002 Monterrey outcome on financing for development.