

Dominican Republic

The Dominican Republic expressed its support for the positions of the G-77 and China, echoed by Cuba, objecting to the mention in the draft decision, of holding informal meetings on the zero draft outcome document in 2012 “within existing resources”, emphasizing that neither the Preparatory Committee nor any other intergovernmental body was mandated to decide on budgetary or financial issues, a role that was incumbent on the Fifth Committee.