

Putting the Furthest Behind First Ensuring No Child is Left Behind

Friday July 15th, 2016, 1:15pm - 2:30pm

Conference Room 10 UN Headquarters (light lunch will be served)

Masaray, 14, blows bubbles with her friends during their break time at Kroo Bay community school in Freetown, Sierra Leone. (Photo: Jonathan Hyams, Save the Children)

ChildFund Alliance, Plan International, SOS Children's Villages International, Save the Children, UNICEF and World Vision invite you to attend an interactive panel discussion to unpack what the 'leave no one behind' principle means for children addressing the challenges and solutions to ensure all children meet 2030 targets. It will specifically address learning in conflict, post-conflict and fragile situations, children without parental care and ensuring the voices of children are reflected in the work of the HLPF.

Moderator:

Ted Chaiban, Director of Programmes, UNICEF

Speakers:

Trokon Monghah, Advocacy & Policy Officer, Save the Children Liberia (tbc)

Kolleen Bouchane, Director of Policy and Advocacy, A World at School

Sofia Garcia-Garcia, UN Representative, SOS Children's Villages International

Arelly Bellorini, UN Representative, World Vision

Please RSVP by COB Wednesday July 13th, 2016 to: savechildrenUN@savethechildren.org

