

NEW GLOBAL BUSINESS NETWORK FOR SIDS-GBN

01 WHO WE ARE

SIDS Global Business Network (SIDS-GBN)

A new online network for Small Island Developing States (SIDS) launches in March 2016. The network, an initiative from the Office of the High Representative for Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States (UN-OHRLLS), aims to link SIDS to the private sector, global businesses and other stakeholders at the national, regional, interregional and international level.

SIDS-GBN: an outcome of Private Sector Partnership Forum

The SIDS-GBN was formulated at a Private Sector Partnerships Forum which UN-OHRLLS co-hosted on the side-lines of last year's Third International Conference on SIDS.

02 WHAT WE DO

SIDS Global Business Network (SIDS-GBN)

The website will help to set up a network between SIDS and business opportunities, serving as a mediator through which members can interact, gather and share business methodologies and plans. The site combines social networking, advertising, marketing and links to relevant international organisations.

Global Partnerships

The new platform will help to develop successful partnerships between SIDS who are already starting to establish initiatives with the private sector. One example of this is the South Pacific Destination Alliance, an initiative that mediates relations between leaders of local business communities, NGOs, and local govern-
