Ms. Emilia Reyes and rapporteurs
This session will allow each MGoS representative to share a maximum of THREE substantial best practices and/or initiatives in terms of their work and collaboration with governments and other stakeholders around national reviews. Each constituency should come prepared with this information and should be able to quickly, clearly, and succinctly state these best practices and/or initiatives and any related challenges as a basis for ongoing discussion throughout the EGM. Each one of these best practices and/or initiatives should be illustrated with an example from the ground as to make it more tangible.

Moderator: Ms. Emilia Reyes, Chair, MGoS

plans on the following: 1) bilateral or multilateral plans of action for MGosS constituencies in unified national and/or regional level work; and 2) global cooperation for more systematic engagement with the HLPF. The idea for group 1 is to base discussions for collaboration on the different initiatives and best practices presented in the morning session so that concrete, joint plans can be formulated among constituencies. The idea for group 2 is to come up with a plan for all MGosS to increase their unified effectiveness in engaging with the global HLPF.
