

Education as an Enabler of Sustainable Development

Daniel Sherrard

EARTH University

May 29, 2015

EARTH University MISSION:

Prepare leaders with ethical values to contribute to sustainable development and to construct a prosperous
and just society

Ethical Leader
Job creator Technical and scientific knowledge Entrepreneur Innovator Environmentally and socially responsible

SOCIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS AND COMMITMENT

TECHNICAL AND SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE

FORMATIVE AREAS

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT
(ATTITUDES AND VALUES)

Technical and Scientific Knowledge

Social and environmental commitment and awareness

Values and attitudes

Ethical entrepreneurship

Student Centered & Experiential Learning

Admissions

- Individual and group interviews
- Leadership potential and commitment, values
- 70% full scholarship

97% of graduates returned home upon graduating and 94% of them are working in a relevant field

8 out of 10 graduates are involved in some type of social initiative 7 of 10 have worked in water, soil and waste management and biodiversity conservation.

Human health and wellbeing are intrinsically linked to the health and wellbeing of the planet, as well as to social justice and human rights. What makes this program different is not just that it intertwines the fields of global health and sustainable development, but it incorporates social entrepreneurship and transformative learning

Education as an Enabler of Sustainable Development

Daniel Sherrard

EARTH University

May 29, 2015