

Leaving no one behind in decision-making:

Setting the example in the SDG era

Overview of session

Join us on Nelson Mandela Day for a dynamic discussion drawing from experiences of the AIDS response and beyond. The session will consider lessons learned from the AIDS response's principle of leaving no one behind and look forward to how to create and consolidate partnerships that inspire and foster community empowerment and meaningful participation towards achieving the SDGs.

Opening remarks

Musah Lumumbah

Ugandan youth advocate and UNAIDS PCB NGO delegate

Special remarks

Jenna Ortega

Actress and activist

Moderator

Ebony Johnson, community mobilizer

Panelists

His Excellency Slumber Tsogwane

Minister of Local Government and Rural Development, Botswana

His Excellency François Delattre

Ambassador of France to the United Nations in New York

Alessandra Nilo

Gestos, Brazil and UNAIDS PCB NGO delegate

Leadership remarks

Michel Sidibe

Executive Director, UNAIDS

18 July 2017 | 13:00 to 14:45 | UN Delegates Dining room, New York | Lunch will be served. Space is limited, please RSVP here

