Excellency,

Following informal consultations with Member States on 28 March 2013, it has been decided that 20th session of the Commission on Sustainable Development, which was initially scheduled to be held in May 2013, will be postponed to a later date.

Further consultations will be conducted among Member States on the timing, agenda and duration of CSD 20 when progress has been made with regard to consultations on the format and organizational modalities of the high-level political forum.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,

Byrganym Aitimova
