

Intergovernmental Committee of Experts on Sustainable Development Financing

Experts' bios

Asia-Pacific Group:

Amjad Mahmood (Pakistan)

Mr. Amjad Mahmood is the head of External Finance Policy at the Ministry of Finance in Pakistan. As Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Finance, he also serves as: National Project Director of the UNDP led Poverty Reduction monitoring project and IMF/World Bank led Poverty Reduction Strategy; Director of the Pakistan Domestic SUKUK Company Limited mandated to deal with all operations on floatation of bonds both in the national and international market; Director on the Board of the SAARC Development Fund and Alternate Director on the Board of the Trade and Development Bank of the Economic Cooperation Organization (ECO). Mr. Mahmood acts as a focal point in the Finance Ministry for engagement with the United Nations on the Joint Programme component under the One UN system. Prior to these experiences, he has served as Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax and Revenue, Director of Pakistan's National Accountability Bureau and Deputy Director (Research and Training) of Pakistan's Federal Board of Revenue. Mr. Mahmood holds a Masters degree in Development Administration and Management from Manchester University (UK), a Master of Business Administration from Preston University (Pakistan) and a Master of English Literature from the University of the Punjab (Pakistan).