

Voluntary National Reviews (VNRs) Reports on Leaving No One Behind (LNOB)

VNRs presented by  43 COUNTRIES

LNOB mentioned by  39 COUNTRIES

Key policy areas mentioned by countries

Groups not to be left behind mentioned by countries

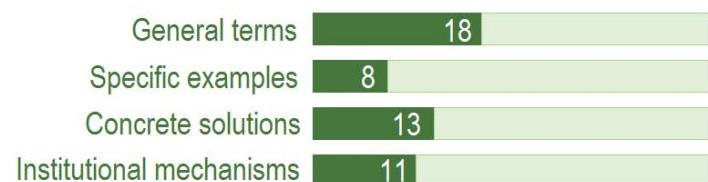

Voluntary National Reviews (VNRs) Reports on Policy Trade-Offs

VNRs presented by  43 COUNTRIES

Trade-offs mentioned by  23 COUNTRIES

How are trade-offs reported by countries?

What terms are used in VNRs to refer to trade-offs or related concepts?

EXAMPLES Country-specific experiences mentioned in VNRs

What specific trade-offs have been identified?

In BOTSWANA road construction may lead to increased spread of HIV/AIDS

DENMARK states that job creation and increased employment may lead to increased income inequality

How are trade-offs being addressed?

BOTSWANA invests some oil revenues to combat spread of HIV/AIDS

How are trade-offs being identified?

BELIZE uses program budgeting as mechanism to inform national allocation of resources based on their Growth and Sustainable Development Strategy

Voluntary National Reviews (VNRs) Reports on Global Partnerships

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

VNRs presented by  43 COUNTRIES

Reference made to at least ONE of the 19 targets of SDG 17 by

 38 COUNTRIES

How are the 19 targets of SDG 17 in the VNRs covered?

Overall coverage

Across the targets coverage

Variations in target coverage

Target-specific findings

Country coverage of the targets of SDG 17

0 VNRs mention
17.15 Policy space and leadership

Targets 17.5, 17.7, 17.15
"Orphan targets"
= Mentioned by THREE or LESS VNRs

VS

18 VNRs mention
17.1 Domestic resource mobilization

Target 17.8
Within target, specific aspects receive less attention than more generic ones

Targets 17.1, 17.4, 17.17
Within targets, more focus on domestic than international aspects

Overall limited country coverage of the targets
5 COUNTRIES reference no target at all

Countries with highest/most detailed target coverage
BELGIUM, NIGERIA, SWEDEN

Examples of countries providing interesting findings
CHILE highlights concrete examples of genuine cooperation, going beyond traditional provider-recipient relationships
INDONESIA provides in-depth description of development cooperation activities