

Open Working Group on Sustainable Development Goals
“Informal meeting on measuring progress”

17 December 2013, Trusteeship Council
Draft agenda (as of 3 December 2013)

10:00 – 10:15 Opening remarks, Co-Chairs of the OWG

10:15 – 10:35 Keynote address: How can statistics assist in the design of the SDGs and post-2015 goals and targets? Walter Radermacher, Director General of Eurostat

10:35 – 13:00: Session 1 - Lessons learned from the monitoring of the MDGs and Sustainable Development Indicators (SDIs)

10:35 - 10:40 Introduction of topic by the panel organizer (INSEE, France)

10:40 – 11:00 Lessons learnt from national MDG monitoring, Mexico (INEGI) and UNDP (MDG Team)

11:00 – 11:10 European experience in monitoring sustainable development – can it be an example? Jointly Eurostat and Switzerland (FSO)

Discussion with the OWG

14:30 – 16:00: Session 2 - Review of existing proposals and their statistical requirements

14:30 – 14:35 Introduction by the panel organizer (NSO, India)

14:35 – 15:00 Examining data needs – assessment and perspectives, Australia (ABS) (tbc)

15:00 – 15:15 A statistical framework for measuring sustainable development – relevance for post-2015 design? Chair of the UNECE/Eurostat/OECD Task Force on Measuring Sustainable Development (CBS, Netherlands)

Discussion with the OWG

16:00 – 18:00: Session 3 - Roadmap for measurement

16:00 – 16:05 Introduction by the panel organizer (IBGE, Brazil)

16:05 – 16:30 Sustainable information for sustainable development - Need for capacity development, Jointly Philippines (NSCB) and South Africa (SSA)

16:30 – 16:55 Roadmap for a monitoring framework for the post-2015 development agenda, Jointly Chair of the Statistical Commission (CSO, Hungary) and PARIS21

Discussion with the OWG

Conclusion: the Co-Chairs of the OWG