A case study from Kenya
Kenya NSO and National Human Rights Commission

✓ Memorandum of Understanding between National Statistics Office and National Human Rights Commission

Build on strength, opportunities and challenges on:

1) Data collection
2) Data disaggregation
3) Data dissemination
Kenya NSO and National Human Rights Commission

✓ NSO: mandate to report on Nation data
✓ National Human Rights Commission: mandate to report on human rights

✓ Impact:
✓ More reliable data for National Human Rights Commission
✓ More insights on those left behind through monitoring by the National Human Rights Commission
Collaboration between KNCHR and KNBS

- The main objective of this MOU is to:
  - Establish a collaborative relationship
  - This assists in various ways to foster progress of reporting SDGs
Who does MOU Target?

The MOU targets various vanarable groups:
How the work has advanced HR and SDG Reporting

- KNBS has been able to produce the following data:
  - PWDs in the last census of 2019
  - Refugees, asylum seekers, statelessness persons in the last census of 2019
  - Intersex data in the last census of 2019
How the work has advanced RH and SDG Reporting

✓ OVCs in the last census of 2019 & in 2019 Kenya Violence against Children Survey
✓ FGM in 2014 Kenya Demographic & Health Survey
✓ The elderly in the last census of 2019
✓ Street children & families in 2018 National Census of street families
✓ Children in conflict with the law in 2020 Economic Survey
Key lessons learnt

- The key lessons learnt from human rights to inform data collection and reporting for SDG 16 in the national context include:

  - Data is available to:
    - Feed into the national SDG reporting
    - Inform policy direction
    - Provide and set response plan
Key lessons learnt

- Provide information for targeted advocacy
- Monitoring & evaluation of programmes/projects

Several targeted financial support to persons with severe disability, the elderly & OVCs is being done in Kenya
For more information please contact:

✓ Samson Omondi, Kenya National Commission for Human Rights: somondi@knchr.org

✓ Robert C. Buluma, Kenya National Bureau of Statistics: rbuluma@knbs.or.ke

✓ George Awalla, VSO Kenya and SDGs Kenya Forum: George.Awalla@vsoint.org
Thank you!