I'm very disappointed to hear John is no longer involved, and I know that Hainan project would like him to be. With the projects now in the final year there is so much benefit that we could get from John's involvement, even to help with documenting lessons learned and KM. I haven't yet worked out in my head how to convince Chaode of this though in a way that will avoid him losing face.

Diversity of actions and approaches are necessary to combat IWT.
