

Developing Social Entrepreneurship Policy

Building an enabling environment for Social Entrepreneurship

Think global, trade social

The relative scale of global trade investment, remittances, aid, debt, CSR activity and impact investment sheds some light on the means and mechanisms we have at our disposal for delivering more sustainable and equitable global development.

Conceptual clarity?

Conceptual clarity?

A snapshot of policy developments in Asia

India: 2% CSR Law and social entrepreneurship referenced in the Enterprise Law
Impact Investors Council and National Advisory Board (NAB) for Impact Investment established

The Philippines: The PRESENT bill (Poverty reduction Through Social Enterprise) In progress
Social Entrepreneurship included in the organic law in the ARMM

Pakistan: The launch of the Centre for Social Entrepreneurship under the Ministry of Planning

Hong Kong: The Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship SIE Fund launched in 2013

Sri Lanka – establish cross government working group on social enterprise

Korea: The Social Enterprise Promotion Act 2007 and the Establishment of a National Advisory Board (NAB) for Impact Investment 2017

Viet Nam: Revision to the Enterprise Law (article 10)

Myanmar: Proposal approved to establish an Inclusive Business and Impact Investment working Group

Malaysia: The Social Enterprise Blueprint (2015) The launch of the Social Outcome Fund (2017) But For Impact

Thailand: Social Enterprise Promotion Act approved by Cabinet 2018

Established APAC Advisory Group for Impact Investing 2019

Indonesia: Developing a Social Enterprise Bill and announced UNDP partnership to unlock social finance towards achieving SDGs

AVPN Asia Policy Forum Launches in 2014

British Council UNESCAP partnership Feb 2017

EUROPEAN UNION

REACHING THE FARTHEST FIRST

The State of Social Enterprise in the Philippines

SEC.27.

Cooperatives and Social Entrepreneurship. The Bangsamoro Government shall recognize, protect, and promote the establishment of cooperative enterprises. It shall likewise encourage and promote social entrepreneurship as a means to engage the private sector to assist in the development, funding, and implementation of solutions to social, cultural, or environmental issues.