What is UN MGCY?

The official and self-organised space for children and youth in certain intergovernmental and allied process at the United Nations.

Vision of UN MGCY

Children and youth are planning, designing, implementing, monitoring, reviewing and evaluating sustainable development policies.

What gives us the mandate?

1) Agenda 21
2) UN General Assembly Resolutions (such as 2013’s A/Res/67/290)
3) Agreements with UN bodies and conferences
Organising Partners (OPs)

Eligible Organisations mandated to co-ordinate the activities of the UN Major Group for Children and Youth (UN MGY). One permanent legal entity and board and 5 elected eligible organisations collectively make up the OPs.

Mandated Tasks
- Facilitation, Governance and Outreach;
- Co-ordination and liaison with the UN system and other stakeholders;
- Oversee the UN MGY External Working Groups (EWG) and Internal Working Groups (IWG), and intervene in case needed.

Election
- The OPs are elected by the the UN MGY participants, through online voting (votes are weighted between individuals and organisations, as 50 - 50%);
- Each elected organisation has a two years mandate;
- The criteria for eligible organisations includes: non profit, youth or child led.

Assembly

The body that decides the activities of the UN MGY. The Assembly happens through regular calls convened by OPs with invitations through the mail list. Open for all individual and organisational members of the UN MGY, with equal weights.

Mandated Tasks
- Receive reports from the OPs and the EWGs on their activities and any policy or statements that have been developed on behalf of the UN MGY;
- Co-ordinate any policy and decide on issues where there may be overlap or conflict between WG;
- Pass changes to the individual representing each organisation as OPs, DOPs or Facilitators by a simple majority;
- Establish new or close old Working Groups (WG).

Board & Legal Entity

Children and Youth International is the board and the legal entity of the UN MGY. All MGY participants are members of Children and Youth International.

Mandated Tasks
- Operates the Finance Working Group;
- Convenes the Elections IWG.

Selection / Election
- The board members of CYI are elected in a staggered manner at an annual UN MGY General Assembly. Votes are distributed as 50 - 50%.
- All named/facilitate people of OP organisation are on the board of the CYI.
- CYI takes up a permanent, non-elected OP place to ensure continuity for the MGY in the UN. There is a named OP for Children and Youth International.

Internal Working Groups (IWGs)

Current IWGs and mandated tasks
- Children: Co-ordinating policy in the interests of children and engaging children in UN processes;
- Communications and Media: Maintaining our websites, external presence, and media work;
- Renewal and Outreach: Improving internal processes and increasing the accessibility of UN MGY’s work to new/potential members;
- Elections: Co-ordinating the elections and selection of the UN MGY;
- Finance: Co-ordinating the finance of the UN MGY and advise on fundraising.

Co-ordination and Participation
- Each IWG is co-ordinated by facilitator, open for any eligible organisation or individual to apply. Elected through an election process co-ordinated by the Election IWG;
- All MGY members may participate in any IWG, with the exception of Finance, whose members are elected at the Annual Assembly.

External Working Groups (EWGs)

Operate day-to-day functions of the UN MGY, linked to respectively mandated UN processes.

Mandated Tasks
- Co-ordinates the development and delivering of the UN MGY’s policy positions and contributions to the relevant UN processes;
